

SECURITY BREACH NOTIFICATION CHART

This chart provides information regarding security breach notification legislation which has been enacted in U.S. jurisdictions. The pioneering statute on this issue, California's Security Breach Notification Act, is often used as a model for other state statutes.

Following this chart is a brief listing of the effective dates of security breach notification legislation.

resulted or will result from the breach. The determination shall be documented in writing and the documentation shall be maintained for five years.

Third Party Data Notification. If a breach of the security of the information system containing PI on an AK resident that is maintained by an Entity that does not own or have the right to license the PI occurs, the Entity shall notify the Entity that owns or licensed the use of the PI about the breach and cooperate as necessary to allow the Entity that owns or licensed the use of the PI to comply with the statute.

Timing of Notification. The disclosure shall be made in the most expeditious time possible and without unreasonable delay consistent with any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and to restore the reasonable integrity of the information system.

Personal Information Definition. An individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements, when the data element is not encrypted, redacted or is encrypted and the encryption key has been accessed or acquired:

- SSN;
- Number on a driver license issued or number on a state ID;
- Financial account number or credit or debit card number in combination with any required security code, access code or password that would permit access to the individual's financial account;

PI does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from the federal, state or local government.

Notice Required. Notice of breaches may be provided by one of the following methods:

- Written Notice;
- Telephonic Notice;
- Electronic notice if the Entity's primary method of communication with the AK resident is by electronic means or is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth in 15 United States Code § 7001 (E-SIGN Act).

This chart is for informational purposes only. It provides general information and not legal advice or opinions regarding specific facts. Substitute Notice Available. If the Entity can demonstrate that the cost of providing notice will exceed $150,000 or that the affected class of persons to be notified exceeds 300,000. Substitute notice shall consist of all of the following:

- Email notice if the Entity has email addresses for the state resident subject to the notice;
- Conspicuous posting of the notice on the Web site of the Entity if the Entity maintains one;
- Notification to major statewide media.

Penalties.

- An Entity that is a governmental agency which violates this statute is liable to the state for a civil penalty of up to $500 for each state resident who was not notified, but the total penalty may not exceed $50,000; and may be enjoined from further violations.
- An Entity that is not a governmental agency which violates this statute is liable to the state for a civil penalty of up to $500 for each state resident who was not notified, but the total civil penalty may not exceed $50,000.

Other key provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. Notice may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation. Notice required by the statute must be made after the law enforcement agency determines that notification will no longer impede the investigation.
- Notification of Consumer Reporting Agencies. If an Entity is required to notify more than 1,000 AK residents of a breach, the Entity shall also notify without unreasonable delay all consumer credit reporting agencies that compile and maintain files on consumers on a nationwide basis and provide the agencies with the timing, distribution, and content of the notices to AK residents. Entities subject to the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Modernization Act are exempt from this requirement and are not required to notify consumer reporting agencies.
- Statute does not permit waiver by contract or other means.

This chart is for informational purposes only. It provides general information and not legal advice or opinions regarding specific facts. For more information about security breach notification laws, or other data security matters, please contact the Perkins Coie attorney with whom you work or Al Gidari (agidari@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.8688), Susan Lyon (slyon@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.8002), Barry Reingold (breingold@perkinscoie.com; 202.434.1613), Joseph Cutler (jcutler@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.6104), or Lindsay Dickston (ldickston@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.6279).

Notification Obligation. Any Entity to which the statute applies shall disclose any breach of security following the discovery of the breach to any CT resident whose PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, accessed by an unauthorized person through such breach.

- Notification not required if, after an appropriate investigation and consultation with relevant federal, state and local agencies responsible for law enforcement, the Entity reasonably determines that the breach will not likely result in harm to the individuals whose PI has been acquired and accessed.

Third Party Data Notification. If an Entity maintains computerized data that includes PI that the Entity does not own the Entity shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of the security of the data immediately following its discovery if the PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been accessed by an unauthorized person.

Timing of Notification. The disclosure shall be made without unreasonable delay, consistent with any measures necessary to determine the nature and scope of the breach, to identify individuals affected, or to restore the reasonable integrity of the data system.

Personal Information Definition. An individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one, or more, of the following data:

- SSN;
- Driver's license number or CT ID card number;
- Account number, credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code or password that would permit access to an individual's financial account.

PI does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, state or local government records or widely distributed media.

Notice Required. Notice of breaches may be provided by one of the following methods:

- Written notice;
- Telephonic notice;
- Electronic notice, provided it is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signature set forth in P.L. 106-229; 15 United States Code § 7001 (E-SIGN Act).

This chart is for informational purposes only. It provides general information and not legal advice or opinions regarding specific facts. For more information about security breach notification laws, or other data security matters, please contact the Perkins Coie attorney with whom you work or Al Gidari (agidari@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.8688), Susan Lyon (slyon@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.8002), Barry Reingold (breingold@perkinscoie.com; 202.434.1613), Joseph Cutler (jcutler@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.6104), or Lindsay Dickston (ldickston@perkinscoie.com; 206.359.6279).

Substitute Notice Available. If the Entity demonstrates that the cost of providing notice would exceed $250,000, or that the affected class of subject persons to be notified exceeds 500,000 persons, or the Entity does not have sufficient contact information. Substitute notice shall consist of all the following:

- Email notice when the Entity has an email address for the affected persons;
- Conspicuous posting of the notice on the Web site of the Entity if the Entity maintains one; and
- Notification to major statewide media, including newspapers, radio and television.

Exception: Own Notification Policy. Any Entity that maintains such Entity's own security breach procedures as part of an information security policy for the treatment of PI and otherwise complies with the timing requirements of the statute, shall be deemed to be in compliance with the security breach notification requirements of the statute, provided such Entity notifies subject persons in accordance with such Entity's policies in the event of a breach of security.

Exception: Compliance with Other Laws.

- Primary Regulator. Notification pursuant to laws, rules, regulations, guidances or guidelines established by an Entity's primary or functional state regulator is sufficient for compliance.

Other key provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. Notice may be delayed for a reasonable period of time if a law enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation and such law enforcement agency has made a request that notification be delayed. Notice required by the statute must be made after the law enforcement agency determines that notification will no longer impede the investigation and so notifies the Entity of such determination.
- AG Enforcement. The AG may seek direct damages and injunctive relief.

- Good faith acquisition of PI by an employee or agent of the Entity is not a breach of the security of the system, provided the information is not used for a purpose unrelated to the business or subject to further unauthorized use.

Notification Obligation. An Entity that conducts business in FL and maintains computerized data in a system that includes PI shall provide notice of any breach of the security of the system, following a determination of the breach, to any resident of FL whose unencrypted PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person.

- Notification is not required if, after an appropriate investigation or after consultation with relevant federal, state, and local agencies responsible for law enforcement, the Entity reasonably determines that the breach has not and will not likely result in harm to the individuals whose PI has been acquired and accessed. Such a determination must be documented in writing and the documentation must be maintained for 5 years.

Third Party Data Notification. Any Entity that maintains computerized data that includes PI on behalf of another business entity shall disclose to the business entity for which the information is maintained any breach of the security of the system as soon as practicable, but no later than 10 days following the determination, if the PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person. The Entity that maintains the data on behalf of another business entity and the business entity on whose behalf the data is maintained may agree who will provide the notice, if any is required, provided only a single notice for each breach of the security system shall be required. If agreement regarding notification cannot be reached, the entity who has the direct business relationship with the FL resident shall be subject to these provisions.

Timing of Notification. Notification shall be made without unreasonable delay, subject to any measures necessary to determine the presence, nature, and scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity of the system.

- Notification must be made no later than 45 days following the determination of the breach.

Penalties. An Entity that violates the statute in the following manner is subject to the following administrative fines:

- An Entity that fails to notify subject persons or another Entity following the determination of a breach is liable for a fine per breach, not to exceed $500,000, i) in the amount of $1,000 for each day the breach goes undisclosed for up to 30 days and, thereafter, $50,000 for each 30-day period or portion thereof for up to 180 days; or ii) if notification is not made within 180 days, any Entity required to make notification who fails to do so is subject to a fine of up to $500,000.
- An Entity required to document a failure to notify affected persons who fails to document the failure, or who, if documentation was created, fails to maintain the documentation for the full 5 years is liable for a fine of up to $50,000 for such failure.

Exception: Compliance with Other Laws.

- Primary Regulator. Notification pursuant to laws, rules, regulations, guidances or guidelines established by an Entity's primary or functional state regulator is sufficient for compliance.

Other key provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. Notice may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation. Notice required by the statute must be made without unreasonable delay and as soon as possible after the law enforcement agency determines that notification will no longer impede the investigation.
- Notification to Consumer Reporting Agencies. If an Entity discovers circumstances requiring notification pursuant to this section of more than 1,000 persons at a single time, the Entity shall also notify, without unreasonable delay, all consumer reporting agencies that compile and maintain files on consumers on a nationwide basis, as defined in 15 U.S.C. s. 1681a(p), of the timing, distribution, and content of the notices.
- Department of Legal Affairs (DLA) Enforcement. Allows the DLA to assess and collect the fines provided under the statute.

Exception: Compliance with Other Laws. This section does not apply to an Entity that maintains its own data security procedures as part of an information privacy, security policy, or compliance plan under:

- GLBA. The provisions of this statute shall not apply to any Entity who is subject to the provisions of Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, Pub. L. No. 106-102.
- HIPAA. A provider of health care, health care service plan, health insurer, or a covered entity governed by the medical privacy and security rules issued by the federal Department of Health and Human Services, Parts 160 and 164 of Title 45 of the Code of Federal Regulations, established pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) shall be deemed in compliance with this chapter.
- The USA Patriot Act (P.L. 107-56);
- Executive Order 13224;
- The federal Driver's Privacy Protection Act (18 U.S.C. 2781 et seq.);
- The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681 et seq.).

if the Entity's information privacy, security policy, or compliance plan requires the Entity to maintain reasonable procedures to protect and safeguard from unlawful use or disclosure PI of IN residents that is collected or maintained by the Entity and the Entity complies with the Entity's information privacy, security policy, or compliance plan.

Other Key Provisions.

- Notification to Consumer Reporting Agencies. An Entity required to make a disclosure to more than 1,000 consumers shall also disclose to each consumer reporting agency (as defined in 15 U.S.C. 1681a(p)) information necessary to assist the consumer reporting agency in preventing fraud, including PI of an Indiana resident affected by the breach of the security of a system.
- AG Enforcement. The AG may seek direct damages and injunctive relief.

Security Breach Definition. The compromise of the security, confidentiality, or integrity of computerized data that results in, or there is a reasonable basis to conclude has resulted in, the unauthorized acquisition of and access to PI maintained by an Entity.

- Good faith acquisition of PI by Entity for the purposes of the Entity is not a breach of the security of the system, provided that the PI is not used for, or is subject to, unauthorized disclosure.

Notification Obligation. Any Entity to which the statute applies shall, following discovery of a breach of the security of the system containing such data, notify any resident of the state whose PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person.

- When notice to LA citizens is required by the statute, the Entity shall provide written notice detailing the breach of the security of the system to the Consumer Protection Section of the Attorney General's Office. Notice shall include the names of all LA citizens affected by the breach. Failure to provide timely notice may be punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000 per violation. Notice to the attorney general shall be timely if received within 10 days of distribution of notice to Louisiana citizens. Each day notice is not received by the attorney general shall be deemed a separate violation.
- Notification is not required if after a reasonable investigation the Entity determines that there is not a reasonable likelihood of harm to customers.

Third Party Data Notification. Any individual, corporation, partnership, sole proprietorship, joint stock company, joint venture, or any other legal entity that maintains computerized data that includes PI that the agency or person does not own shall notify the owner or licensee of the information if the PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, acquired by an unauthorized person through a breach of security of the system containing such data, following discovery by the agency or person of a breach of the security system.

Timing of Notification. The notification required pursuant to the statute shall be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay, consistent with any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach, prevent further disclosures, and restore the reasonable integrity of the data system.

or licensor. Such Entity shall cooperate with the owner or licensor of such PI. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, (i) informing the owner or licensor of the breach of security or unauthorized acquisition or use, (ii) the date or approximate date of such incident and the nature thereof, and (iii) any steps the Entity has taken or plans to take relating to the incident, except that such cooperation shall not be deemed to require the disclosure of confidential business information or trade secrets, or to provide notice to a resident that may not have been affected by the breach of security or unauthorized acquisition or use.

Timing of Notification. The notification shall be given as soon as practicable and without unreasonable delay following discovery of the breach.

Personal Information Definition. A resident's first name and last name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements that relates to such resident:

- SSN;
- Driver's license or MA ID card number;
- Financial account number, or credit card number, with or without any required security code, access code, personal ID number or password, that would permit access to a resident's financial account.

PI does not include information that is lawfully obtained from publicly available information, or from federal, state or local government records lawfully made available to the general public.

Notice Required. Notice of breaches may be provided by one of the following methods:

- Written notice;
- Electronic notice, if notice provided is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures set forth in P.L. 106-229; 114 Stat. 464; 15 United States Code § 7001 (E-SIGN Act).

Other Key Provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. Notice may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation or jeopardize homeland or national security. Notification shall be given as soon as reasonably practicable after the law enforcement agency determines that it will not impede a criminal investigation and will not jeopardize homeland or national security.
- Notification to Consumer Reporting Agencies. After an Entity provides a notice under this section, the Entity shall notify each consumer reporting agency that compiles and maintains files on consumers on a nationwide basis, as defined in 15 USC 1681a(p), of the security breach without unreasonable

- Email notice if Entity has Email address for subject persons;
- Conspicuous posting of the notice on the Web site page of the Entity, if the Entity maintains one; and
- Notification to major statewide media.

Exception: Own Notification Policy. An Entity that maintains its own notification procedures as part of an information security policy for the treatment of PI and whose procedures are otherwise consistent with the timing requirements of the statute, shall be deemed to be in compliance with the notification requirements of the statute, if the Entity notifies subject persons in accordance with its policies in the event of a breach of security of the system.

Exception: Compliance with Federal Regulations. Any person that maintains a security breach procedure pursuant to the rules, regulations, or guidelines established by the primary federal functional regulator shall be deemed to be in compliance with this section, provided the person notifies affected individuals in accordance with the policies or the rules, regulations, procedures, or guidelines.

Other Key Provisions

- Delay for law enforcement: any notification shall be delayed for a reasonable period of time if a law enforcement agency determines that the notification will impede a criminal investigation or national security and the law enforcement agency has made a request that the notification be delayed.

Any such delayed notification shall be made after the law enforcement agency determines that notification will not compromise the criminal investigation or national security and so notifies the person of that determination.

- AG enforcement for failure to comply as unfair trade practice
- Shall not be construed to create a private right of action

- Primary Regulator. An Entity engaged in trade or commerce which maintains procedures for security breach notification pursuant to laws, rules, regulations, guidances, or guidelines issued by a state or federal regulator shall be deemed to be in compliance with this subdivision if it acts in accordance with such laws, rules, regulations, guidances or guidelines.

Penalties. Any person injured by violation may bring an action for damages and for equitable relief as the court deems necessary and proper. If the court finds for the plaintiff, recovery shall be in the amount of actual damages. If the court finds that the act or practice was willful or knowing, it shall award as much as 3 times but not less than 2 times, such amount. In addition, a prevailing plaintiff shall be awarded the costs of the suit and attorney's fees, as determined by the court. Injunctive relief shall be available to private individuals under this chapter without bond, subject to the discretion of the court.

Other Key Provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. The notification may be delayed if a law enforcement agency or national or homeland security agency determines that the notification will impede a criminal investigation or jeopardize national or homeland security.
- Notification to Consumer Reporting Agencies. If an Entity is required to notify more than 1,000 consumers, the Entity shall also notify, without unreasonable delay, all consumer reporting agencies that compile and maintain files on consumers on a nationwide basis of the anticipated date of the notification, the approximate number of consumers who will be notified, and the content of the notice. This obligation does not apply to entities subject to Title V of the GLBA.
- AG Enforcement. NH AG shall enforce the statute.
- Waiver is not permitted.

NEW JERSEY

N.J. STAT. ANN. § 56:8-163

A. 4001 (signed Sept. 22, 2005)

Effective January 1, 2006 (all provisions except those governing police reports, which are effective on Sept. 22, 2005)

Application. NJ, and any county, municipality, district, public authority, public agency, and any other political subdivision or public body in NJ, any sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, association, or other entity, however organized and whether or not organized to operate at a profit, including a financial institution organized, chartered, or holding a license or authorization certificate under the law of NJ, any other state, the United States, or of any other country, or the parent or the subsidiary of a financial institution, that conducts business in NJ (collectively, "Entity") that compiles or maintains computerized records that include PI. The provisions governing maintenance of PI that the Entity does not own appear applicable to any Entity maintaining PI, whether or not the Entity conducts business in NJ.

Security Breach Definition. Unauthorized access to electronic files, media or data containing PI that compromises the security, confidentiality or integrity of PI when access to the PI has not been secured by encryption or by any other method or technology that renders the PI unreadable or unusable.

- Good faith acquisition of PI by an employee or agent of the Entity for a legitimate business purpose is not a breach of security, provided that the PI is not used for a purpose unrelated to the business or subject to further unauthorized disclosure.

Notification Obligation. Any Entity to which the statute applies shall disclose any breach of security of those computerized records following discovery or notification of the breach to any customer who is a resident of NJ whose PI was, or is reasonably believed to have been, accessed by an unauthorized person.

- Disclosure of a breach of security to a customer shall not be required if the Entity establishes that misuse of the information is not reasonably possible. Any determination shall be documented in writing and retained for five years.
- Any Entity required under this section to disclose a breach of security of a customer's PI shall, in advance of the disclosure to the customer, report the breach of security and any information pertaining to the breach to the Division of State Police in the Department of Law and Public Safety for investigation or handling, which may include dissemination or referral to other appropriate law enforcement entities.

Third Party Data Notification. An Entity that compiles or maintains computerized records that include PI on behalf of another Entity shall notify that Entity of any breach of security of the computerized records

OREGON

OR. REV. STAT. §§ 646A.600, 646A.602, 646A.604, 646A.624, 646A.626

S.B. 583 (signed into law July 12, 2007)

Effective October 1, 2007

Application. Any individual, private or public corporation, partnership, cooperative, association, estate, LLC, organization or other entity, whether or not organized to operate at a profit, or a public body as defined in ORS 174.109 (collectively, "Entity") that owns, maintains or otherwise possesses data that includes an individual's PI that is used in the course of the Entity's business, vocation, occupation or volunteer activities and was subject to the breach of security.

Security Breach Definition. Unauthorized acquisition of computerized data that materially compromises the security, confidentiality or integrity of PI maintained by the Entity.

- Does not include good faith acquisition of PI by an Entity or that Entity's employee or agent for a legitimate purpose of that Entity if the PI is not used in violation of applicable law or in a manner that harms or poses an actual threat to the security, confidentiality or integrity of the PI.

Notification Obligation. Any Entity to which the statute applies shall give notice of the breach of security following discovery of such breach of security, or receipt of notification, to any Entity whose PI was included in the information that was breached.

- Notification is not required if, after an appropriate investigation or after consultation with relevant federal, state or local agencies responsible for law enforcement, the Entity reasonably determines that the breach has not and will not likely result in harm to the individuals whose PI has been acquired and accessed. Such a determination must be documented in writing and the documentation must be maintained for five years.

Third Party Data Notification. Any person that maintains or otherwise possesses PI through a licensing agreement with another person shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of security immediately following discovery of such breach of security if an individual's PI was included in the information that was breached.

Timing of Notification. The disclosure shall be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay, consistent with any measures necessary to determine sufficient contact information for the individuals, determine the scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity, security and confidentiality of the data.

Personal Information Definition. An OR resident's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements, when either the name or the data elements are not rendered unusable through encryption, redaction or other methods,

Substitute Notice Available. If the Entity demonstrates that the cost of providing notice would exceed $250,000, that the affected class of individuals to be notified exceeds 350,000, or if the Entity does not have sufficient contact information to provide notice. Substitute notice consists of the following:

- Conspicuous posting of the notice or a link to the notice on the Internet home page of the Entity if the Entity maintains one; and
- Notification to major statewide television and newspaper media.

Exception: Compliance with Other Laws.

- Primary Regulator. An Entity that complies with the notification requirements or breach of security procedures that provide greater protection to PI and at least as thorough disclosure requirements pursuant to the rules, regulations, procedures, guidance or guidelines established by the Entity's primary or functional federal regulator.
- GLBA. A person that complies with regulations regarding notification requirements or breach of security procedures that provide greater protection to PI and at least as thorough disclosure requirements promulgated pursuant to title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 (15 U.S.C. 6801 to 6809).
- More restrictive State or Federal Law. An Entity that complies with a state or federal law that provides greater protection to PI and at least as thorough disclosure requirements for breach of security of PI than that provided by this section.

Other key provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. Notification may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notification will impede a criminal investigation and that agency has made a written request that the notification be delayed. The required notification shall be made after that law enforcement agency determines that its disclosure will not compromise the investigation and notifies the Entity in writing.

Application. A corporation, institution, company or collective partnership that is considered a legal entity (collectively, "Entity") that maintains or has custody over PI about a PR resident.

Security Breach Definition. Unauthorized access to storage of PI that compromises the security confidentiality or integrity of the PI; or access by persons who are authorized who have knowingly violated their professional confidentiality obligations, or have obtained the information under false pretenses, with the intention of using it for illegal purposes. Security breach includes access to PI through a computer system as well as physical access.

Notification Obligation. The Entity that maintains the archive of PI must notify the individuals whose information was compromised. The Entity must also notify DACO within 10 days of detecting the breach.

Timing of Notification. The disclosure shall be made in the most expedient manner possible.

Personal Information Definition. An individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any of the following data elements, when the name or the data elements are readable without an encryption key:

- SSN;
- Driver's license number;
- Election registration or voter registration number;
- Other official ID card information;
- Bank or financial account numbers with or without the keys or passwords to access those accounts;
- Usernames and passwords to access information systems, whether public or private;
- Medical information protected by HIPAA;
- Laboratory results.

PI does not include publicly available information or addresses.

Notice Required. Notice may be provided by any of the following methods:

- Written notice;
- Electronic notice.

the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Office of Thrift Supervision, as amended, is considered to be in compliance with this section.

Penalties. A resident of SC injured by a violation of the statute, in addition to and cumulative of all other rights and remedies available at law, may:

- Institute a civil action to recover damages in case of a willful and knowing violation;
- Institute a civil action that must be limited to actual damages resulting from a violation in case of a negligent violation of this section;
- Seek an injunction to enforce compliance; and
- Recover attorney's fees and court costs, if successful.

A person who knowingly and willfully violates this section is subject to an administrative fine in the amount of one thousand dollars for each resident whose information was accessible by reason of the breach, the amount to be decided by the Department of Consumer Affairs.

Other key provisions:

- Delay for Law Enforcement. The notification required by the statute may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notification impedes a criminal investigation. The notification required by the statute must be made after the law enforcement agency determines that it no longer compromises the investigation.
- Notification to Consumer Reporting Agencies. If an Entity provides notice to more than 1000 persons at one time pursuant to the statute, the Entity shall notify, without unreasonable delay, the Consumer Protection Division of the Department of Consumer Affairs and all consumer reporting agencies that compile and maintain files on a nationwide basis, as defined in 15 USC Section 1681a(p), of the timing, distribution, and content of the notice.

Banking, Insurance, Securities, and Health Care Administration in the event that the Entity is a person or entity licensed or registered with the Department.

Third Party Data Notification. Any Entity that maintains or possesses computerized data containing PI of an individual residing in VT that the Entity does not own or license or any Entity that conducts business in VT that maintains or possesses records or data containing PI that the Entity does not own or license shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any security breach immediately following discovery of the breach, consistent with the legitimate needs of law enforcement.

Timing of Notification. Notice of the breach shall be made in the most expedient time possible and without unreasonable delay, consistent with any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity, security, and confidentiality of the data system.

Personal Information Definition. An individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements, when either the name or the data elements are not encrypted or redacted or protected by another method that renders them unreadable or unusable by unauthorized persons:

- SSN;
- Motor vehicle operator's license number or nondriver ID card number;
- Financial account number or credit or debit card number, if circumstances exist in which the number could be used without additional identifying information, access codes, or passwords;
- Account passwords or personal ID numbers or other access codes for a financial account.

PI does not mean publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, state, or local government records.

Notice Required. The notice shall be clear and conspicuous. The notice shall include a description of the following:

- The incident in general terms.
- The type of PI that was subject to the unauthorized access or acquisition.

- The general acts of the Entity to protect the PI from further unauthorized access or acquisition.
- A toll-free telephone number that the consumer may call for further information and assistance.
- Advice that directs the consumer to remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports.

Notice may be provided by one of the following methods:

- Written notice mailed to the individual's residence;
- Telephonic notice, provided that telephonic contact is made directly with each affected resident of VT, and the telephonic contact is not through a prerecorded message.
- Electronic notice, for those individuals for whom the Entity has a valid e-mail address if: (a) the Entity does not have the individual's address or telephone contact information, the Entity's primary method of communication with the individual is by electronic means, the electronic notice does not request or contain a hypertext link to a request that the individual provide PI, and the electronic notice conspicuously warns individuals not to provide PI in response to electronic communications regarding security breaches; or (b) the notice provided is consistent with the provisions regarding electronic records and signatures for notices as set forth in P.L. 106-229; 114 Stat. 464; 15 United States Code § 7001 (E-SIGN Act).

Substitute Notice Available. If the Entity demonstrates that the cost of providing written or telephonic notice to affected residents would exceed $5,000 or that the affected class of affected residents to be provided written or telephonic notice exceeds 5,000, or the Entity does not have sufficient contact information. Substitute notice shall consist of all of the following:

- Conspicuous posting of the notice on the Entity's Web site if the Entity maintains one; and
- Notification to major statewide and regional media.

Exception: Compliance with Other Laws.

- Federal Interagency Guidance. A financial institution that is subject to the following guidances, and any revisions, additions, or substitutions relating to said interagency guidance shall be exempt from this section: (a) The Federal Interagency Security Breach Definition. Unauthorized access and acquisition of unencrypted and unredacted computerized data that compromises the security or confidentiality of PI maintained by an Entity as part of a database of PI regarding multiple individuals and that causes, or the Entity reasonably believes has caused, or will cause, identity theft or other fraud to any resident of VA.

- Good faith acquisition of PI by an employee or agent of an Entity for the purposes of the Entity is not a breach of the security of the system, provided that the PI is not used for a purpose other than a lawful purpose of the individual or entity or subject to further unauthorized disclosure.

Notification Obligation. If unencrypted or unredacted PI was or is reasonably believed to have been accessed and acquired by an unauthorized person and causes, or the Entity reasonably believes has caused or will cause, identity theft or another fraud to any resident of VA, an Entity to which the statute applies shall disclose any breach of the security of the system following discovery or notification of the breach of the security of the system to the Office of the AG and any affected resident of VA.

- An Entity shall disclose the breach of the security of the system if encrypted information is accessed and acquired in an unencrypted form, or if the security breach involves a person with access to the encryption key and the Entity reasonably believes that such a breach has caused or will cause identity theft or other fraud to any resident of VA.
- In the event an Entity provides notice to more than 1,000 persons at one time pursuant to this section, the individual or entity shall notify, without unreasonable delay, the Office of the AG of the timing, distribution, and content of the notice.

Third Party Data Notification. An Entity that maintains computerized data that includes PI that the Entity does not own or license shall notify the owner or licensee of the information of any breach of the security of the system without unreasonable delay following discovery of the breach of the security of the system, if the PI was accessed and acquired by an unauthorized person or the Entity reasonably believes the PI was accessed and acquired by an unauthorized person.

Timing of Notification. Notice required by the statute shall be made without unreasonable delay. Notice may be reasonably delayed to allow individual or entity to determine scope of the breach of security and restore the reasonable integrity of the system.

Personal Information Definition. The first name or first initial and last name in combination with and linked to any one or more of the following data elements that relate to a resident of the Commonwealth, when the data elements are neither encrypted nor redacted:

- SSN;
- Driver's license number or state identification card number issued in lieu of a driver's license number; or
- Financial account number, or credit card or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to a resident's financial accounts.

PI does not include information that is lawfully obtained from publicly available information, or from federal, state, or local government records lawfully made available to the general public.

Notice Required. The notice required by this section shall include a description of the following:

- The incident in general terms;
- The type of PI that was subject to the unauthorized access and acquisition;
- The general acts of the individual or entity to protect the PI from further unauthorized access;
- A telephone number that the person may call for further information and assistance, if one exists; and
- Advice that directs the person to remain vigilant by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports.

Notice means:

- Written notice to the last known postal address in the records of the individual or entity;
- Telephone notice; or
- Electronic notice.

Substitute Notice Available. If the Entity required to provide notice demonstrates that the cost of providing notice will exceed $50,000, the affected class of VA residents to be notified exceeds 100,000 residents, or the individual or the entity does not have sufficient contact information or consent to provide written, electronic or telephonic
